7/14/88: Compared into Spangler's list (see) to abstracts made of 1937 D.A.R. list. See notations / additions / corrections.

- 1 Headstone reads "Baro." Page 48 of the Burial Register lists "Henry F. Barrows."
- 2 Headstone reads "Earnest Bierman." See page 36 Burial Register.
- 3 A brief biography of James Peace is elsewhere in this newsletter. Hudson's Bay Company records list his name simply as "James Peace."
- 4 "Monas Dixon Penny" is on Death Certificate.
- 5 "Reagan" in the Burial Register.

Note: The Burial Register also lists the name of Francis Edgar Maddocks as buried in the G.A.R. plot, but there is no headstone for him.

The name of JAMES HENRY BAXTER should be added to the names of Civil War Veterans interred at Union Cemetery. He was born August 2, 1844 or 1845 in Maryland. He enlisted in the local militia at York Furnace, Pennysylvannia, June 30, 1863, and was mustered into the Service of the U.S. on July 2, 1863. He was injured by a sabre wound in the neck at the Battle of Gettysburg. He had resided six years in Redwood City prior to his death on September 2, 1936.
